

Family Law Journal

Every month, 550 family law firms stay up to date with the latest developments in divorce, child law, adoption, cohabitation, abuse, and inheritance disputes. As with all of the law journal series, the emphasis is on concise, practical explanations of case law, legislative changes, and business best practice. The estimated readership of 1,500 includes solicitors and barristers, judges, government bodies, councils and charities – all those at the heart of family law.

Key topics include: adoption, children, Civil Procedure Rules, clean break, cohabitation, costs, divorce, domestic violence, human rights, injunctions, international issues, legal aid, maintenance, marriage, mediation, pensions, and nuptial contracts.

Legalease Law Journals reach many thousands of practitioners each month, giving you a high-quality, focused channel into the heart of the English legal market – from support lawyers to senior partners. They are also read by barristers, in-house lawyers and specialists in the particular sector of each journal (eg trust managers for Trusts and Estates Law & Tax Journal, surveyors and property developers for Property Law Journal, HR officers for Employment Law Journal).

The emphasis is on pragmatic, business-focused advice: key legislative and case law changes, difficult areas explored, regulatory requirements explained. Each journal is both an updater, which lawyers use to keep abreast of the latest developments, and also a vital library reference tool, providing detailed analysis of particular issues for readers to refer to as and when they arise.

While the focus of each journal is on developments within English law, inevitably European, offshore and general global issues regularly arise, and these are examined for their impact on UK practitioners.

The articles are written by solicitors and barristers involved in the biggest cases and from the top law firms and chambers, while the journal editors have many years of practising experience between them. As a final step to ensure they provide the very best coverage of legal developments, each journal has an editorial board of top practitioners with a range of specialities.
