

Trusts and Estates Law & Tax Journal

With 750 subscribers and a readership estimated at 2,000, Trusts and Estates Law & Tax Journal is the essential journal covering the converging financial and legal issues facing the trust industry. With a swathe of legislation and regulation affecting the industry in recent years, an increasing use of trusts by the wealthy, and the multinational nature of the issues, practitioners are finding it harder and harder to keep up with their own specialisms, let alone wider developments in the field. Every month the journal contains detailed articles studying particular problems, wider analyses of risks and trends, and reminders of key topics.

Our consultant editor, Geoffrey Shindler, is the worldwide president of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners, ensuring the journal is fully informed of global developments. While the focus of the publication is changes to UK law and regulation, all Commonwealth jurisdictions are covered, as well as best practice advice for dealing with offshore and major wealth centres such as Jersey and Guernsey, BVI, the Bahamas, Switzerland, the Cayman Islands and so on. The readership is composed of solicitors, barristers, attorneys, accountants, trust administrators, and banking and insurance professionals in the trust field.

Legalease Law Journals reach many thousands of practitioners each month, giving you a high-quality, focused channel into the heart of the English legal market – from support lawyers to senior partners. They are also read by barristers, in-house lawyers and specialists in the particular sector of each journal (eg trust managers for Trusts and Estates Law & Tax Journal, surveyors and property developers for Property Law Journal, HR officers for Employment Law Journal).

The emphasis is on pragmatic, business-focused advice: key legislative and case law changes, difficult areas explored, regulatory requirements explained. Each journal is both an updater, which lawyers use to keep abreast of the latest developments, and also a vital library reference tool, providing detailed analysis of particular issues for readers to refer to as and when they arise.

While the focus of each journal is on developments within English law, inevitably European, offshore and general global issues regularly arise, and these are examined for their impact on UK practitioners.

The articles are written by solicitors and barristers involved in the biggest cases and from the top law firms and chambers, while the journal editors have many years of practising experience between them. As a final step to ensure they provide the very best coverage of legal developments, each journal has an editorial board of top practitioners with a range of specialities.
